

Collected

BY SARAH RICHARDSON

City +
Country

FRESH ROOMS AND NEW IDEAS
FOR THE BEST OF BOTH WORLDS

YES, YOU CAN!

Keep the TV hidden from view when not in use with a series of framed photographs connected with piano hinges to act as retractable doors.

↓
Texture and tone-on-tone pattern make an all-grey room feel cozy (a roaring fire doesn't hurt, either). Vintage rattan chairs repainted in charcoal grey, a sleek marble mantel, and mirrors in a beehive configuration add contemporary appeal.

→
Soft greys rule in this neutral living room, giving way to a few crisp black-and-white accessories for contrast and impact. A cream rug, printed linen drapes, and oodles of natural light bring in all the warmth needed to keep these cool tones from feeling cold.

